

Heracles

(Myth)

Hello, my name is Heracles (Hair-uh-kleez). I am better known by the name the Romans gave me, Hercules! I am the most popular of the Greek heroes. I am known for my extraordinary strength and courage. I performed 12 great labors for my cousin, the king of Argos. Because of these feats, I won immortality and became a god.

Dress in a Greek tunic over a shirt. Stuff your shirt with tissue or cloth to appear as if you have big muscles. Carry a toy club.

*Walk Through The Ancient World © CWE, Inc.
www.californiaweekly.com*