

Homer

Hello, my name is Homer. I am a blind man who created the epic poems The Iliad (il-ee-uhd), the story of the siege of Troy, and The Odyssey, the story of the journey home from the Trojan War. My stories are based on fact and are still used today to study Greek traditions and culture. My famous works were done around 700 BC.

Dress in a Greek tunic. Carry a walking stick and act as though you are blind as you talk.

*Walk Through The Ancient World © CWE, Inc.
www.californiaweekly.com*