

Juno

(Myth)

Hello, my name is Juno. I am the Roman goddess of marriage and childbirth and the wife of Jupiter. The Greeks call me Hera. My symbols are the pomegranate and peacock. As Queen of the gods, I helped settle disputes between spouses. I also protected the finances of the Roman people. The month of June is named after me and was considered the most favorable month to get married.

Dress as a Roman goddess and carry a peacock feather or pomegranate.

*Walk Through The Ancient World © CWE, Inc.
www.californiaweekly.com*