

Militia/Minutemen

A militia (mi-lish-uh) is a group of regular citizens who serve as soldiers in times of emergency. The Minutemen were a group of skilled fighters of the militia, who agreed to fight for the independence of America and would be ready to do battle with only a minute's notice.