

Nancy Morgan Hart

Reenact the story as you speak. Use five boys from the White team and one girl from your team.

Give the boys cups and then grab one of their muskets (provided by presenter). Have your daughter run away and shout, "Help! Help!"

Hello, my name is Nancy Morgan Hart. I fought battles of the Revolution in my own home. Five Tories came to my house, demanding a meal. I tricked them by giving them drinks and started taking their muskets. When they discovered my plan, I held them at gunpoint. I sent my daughter to get help to take away my prisoners.
