

Paul

Hello, my name is Paul. I am known today as St. Paul or Paul the apostle, but I was born Saul of Tarsus. I was a highly respected Jewish leader who sought to arrest Christians. One day, while on the road to Damascus, Jesus appeared to me and I became a devoted follower of this new faith. Through my writings and 15 years of missionary journeys, I spread Christianity throughout the Roman Empire. I wrote over half of the New Testament found in the Christian Bible. In 64 AD I was killed for my beliefs under the reign of Nero.

Dress in a tunic and carry a scroll of paper that represents books of the New Testament.

*Walk Through The Ancient World © CWE, Inc.
www.californiaweekly.com*