

Ra

(Myth)

Hello, my name is Ra. I am the sun god depicted with a human body and the head of a hawk. I am the creator of the universe. If I imagined a creature, it would suddenly appear. My chief symbols are the sun disk and the obelisk (o-blisk). Worshipping me was adopted as a state religion. I became king of Egypt, but gave up being king so I could ride across the sky.

Dress as a god with a bird-like head. Hold up a drawing of the sun. When done, pretend to fly back to your seat.
