

Spartacus

Hello, my name is Spartacus. I am a famous gladiator. As a slave, I was used for entertainment in the Roman circuses. I was trained to fight bloody battles against other slaves and wild beasts. Wanting freedom, I led an army of 100,000 gladiators in a revolt against the Romans. It was called the Gladiator War. After two years of fierce fighting, I was killed in a battle against Pompey the Great and my army was defeated.
