

George Washington

Hello, my name is George Washington. I am known for many things: farmer, surveyor, and Commander in Chief of the Continental Army. Before I led the Americans in the Revolution, I led British soldiers as an officer in the French & Indian War. This is where I gained a reputation as "bulletproof" Washington. As the General in the fight for independence, I used my own money to help finance the Continental Army and Navy. After the war I became the first elected president of the United States of America.

Performance Instructions: Dress as a Colonial general and carry a pretend sword. After speaking, raise up your sword and say, "First in battle, first in peace, and first in the hearts of my countrymen!"

Walk Through The American Revolution © CWE, Inc. www.californiaweekly.com