

Ptolemy I

Hello, my name is Ptolemy (Tall-e-mee) the First. I am a general of Alexander the Great's armies. We were childhood friends and I became his trusted advisor. When Alexander the Great died, his kingdom was divided among his four generals, I was given Egypt and Libya to rule as king. I made Alexandria my capital and it became the most important city in the world. I wrote a book about Alexander the Great.

Performance Instructions: Dress as a Greek general and carry a book labeled Alexander the Great. After speaking, walk up to the student playing Alexander the Great and shake his hand.
