

Ra

Hello, my name is Ra. I am the sun god depicted with a human body and the head of a hawk. According to Egyptian mythology, I am the creator of the universe. If I imagined a creature, it would suddenly appear. My chief symbols are the sun disk and the obelisk (o-blisk). Worshipping me was adopted as a state religion. I became king of Egypt, but gave up being king so I could ride across the sky.

Performance Instructions: Dress as a god with the head of a falcon. While speaking, hold up a drawing of the sun. After speaking, flap your arms to fly back to your seat.

*Walk Through The Ancient World © CWE, Inc.
www.californiaweekly.com*