

Rameses II

Hello, my name is Rameses (Ram-uh-seez) the Second. I am also known as Rameses the Great. I consider myself to be a great warrior. As king, I did battles with the Hittites (hit-tights) and eventually reached peace with them, later marrying the king's daughter. I was a popular king known for my building projects and the many statues I had constructed in my honor. Egypt was very prosperous during my reign.

Performance Instructions: Dress as an Egyptian pharaoh. While speaking, show a picture of the Temple of Rameses. After speaking, hold the picture up and say, "I am Rameses the Great!"

*Walk Through The Ancient World © CWE, Inc.
www.californiaweekly.com*