

State

A state is a part of the United States with the ability to make legal decisions for its defined area. A state has its own leaders, flag, and collects its own taxes.

What are the three states that touch California?

*Walk Through California © CWE, Inc.
www.californiaweekly.com*