

Proclamation

A proclamation is an official document or paper that declares or announces something so that other people will know. The Proclamation of 1763 stated that the colonists could no longer move west into Native American territory.